

THE GREAT
COUNTRY PAPER
OF THE WEST.

and Contains All the Cream of the Daily and Saturday News.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

Deputy Marshal B. E. Heywood has gone to Vernal to serve subpoenas there for jurors and witnesses.

William Armstrong, a well known hotel man of Milford is in the Holy Cross hospital to be treated for dropsy.

Miss Jennie S. Stanger gave an entertaining dramatic reading last evening in the East Side Baptist church, assisted by Mrs. V. B. Cutler as singer.

Elders Wm. M. Stewart and Mathontham Thomas will address the Saints of the Twelfth ward tomorrow night, the meeting beginning at 6:30. The public is invited.

James Anderson, a Eureka miner, filed a petition in bankruptcy yesterday afternoon, with liabilities amounting to $250.45, and assets amounting to $224.75 all of which is exempt.

Landford G. S. Holmes of the Knutsford is in receipt of an unusually fine colored photograph of his youngest son Dwight, who is a student at Phillips academy, Exeter, N. H., where he is trying to make up his mind whether to go to Yale or to Harvard.

State Supt. of Schools Nelson went to Heber City today to attend the Wasatch county teachers' institute. He delivered an address to the teachers this morning, to the trustees in the afternoon, and will address a public meeting of citizens at night.

A special effort is being made to pay the $5,000 mortgage which has for a number of years been hanging over the Episcopal denary, and pledge cards are being sent around by a special committee to the members of the church and congregation in the parish.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs.
William H. Williams will sympathize with them in the loss of their 8-months-old son, Hulon Sylvester, who passed away last night at the family residence, 463 Pearl avenue, of pneumonia.
The funeral will be held at 11:30 a. m. tomorrow.

Petitions in bankruptcy were filed Thursday afternoon, with the clerk of The Putnam memorial fund of St.

Mark's cathedral was started Nov. 1, 1900, and now amounts to $121.80. It has grown at the rate of about $25 a year, and been made up mainly of offerings given at the feast of All Saints, it is proposed to accumulate the fund to $500, and then get a pulpit in memory of the late Rev. N. F. Putnam, once the much beloved rector and parish priest of St. Mark's.

The executive board of the state union of Christian Endeavor will hold a meeting this evening at the residence of the secretary, Miss Eva M.
Fleming, 325 Second East street, to discuss the organizing of senior and junior C. E. societies over the state, as well as ways and means of advancing the general interests of the work in Utah; also, the quarter century memorial fund.

In view of a morning paper claiming that no improvements of note had been made in the Salt Lake postoffice within the last few years, it was remarked at the postoffice this morning that since the advent of the present postoffice administration 21 stations had been opened about the city, including the East Side postoffice, 22 carriers had been added to the list with two collectors. Moreover, the general delivery window and office were now open until 9 p. m., whereas they formerly closed at 6; and registered mail now goes through Ogden without relaying, thus saving 12 hours.
